APPROVAL OF MINUTES

Motion made by Commissioner Proano and seconded by Commissioner Araullo to approve the May 24, 2016. Unanimously approved.

DIRECTOR'S REPORTS:

1. Daly City Dolphins Swim Club Agreement: The new monthly fee for use of the pool to conduct sessions is $3,100 per month effective January 1, 2017. Swim meet fees shall be $3,200 per occurrence (up to two per year) for the term of this agreement, inclusive of the cost to the City for lifeguards, custodial support and custodial supplies and partial lost program revenue. The Dolphins were also given more swim lane space. The Dolphins may not place any temporary signs upon the Pool property without the prior and express written approval of the City. Motion made by Commissioner Proano and seconded by Commissioner Araullo. Unanimously approved.
2. Garden Deli Menu Price Adjustment: The Deli has not adjusted their prices in 5 years and the cost of food has gone up 30%. Narrowing the menu and a 50 cent to a $1.00 price increase across the board is recommended.

COMMISSIONERS' REPORT: None

- Commissioner Araullo thanked the City of Daly City for honoring the Filipino community but would like to see a bit more. Commissioner Araullo would like a Daly City Park to be named after a Filipino leader who is iconic and will inspire and make our Filipino community feel valued. Recreation Commissioners are seeking guidance from Director Curran on how to proceed.

ANNOUNCEMENTS AND COMMUNICATIONS:

- Independence Day Celebration, Friday, July 1, 2016 at Doelger Senior Center. Festivities start at 10:30 a.m.

PUBLIC COMMENT/GUESTS:

Zak Garafilo, President of the Daly City Dolphin gave a brief background of the Swim Club and the number of residents/non-residents that participates in the Club.
