Council

Councilmember Manalo updated the community about the pop-up business at City Hall, Tallio's Coffee & Tea, and acknowledged the efforts of Economic Development Specialist Manio. Manalo reported attending recent events: the holiday showcase at Dave & Buster's, held at the Serramonte Center in partnership with the Daly City Colma Chamber of Commerce; a film screening at the Children's Creativity

Museum, featuring work by filmmaker and professional soccer player Reina Bonta, with hopes of having the film show in theaters in Daly City; an educational forum on wildfire safety organized by PG&E and the Filipino American Press Club, also acknowledging the North County Fire Authority for their contributions; a memorial service for community leader John Iesha Ena, during which Vice Mayor Sylvester presented a proclamation honoring Ena's life; the Samoa and American Samoa flag-raising event at City Hall; the Family Resource Day event, commending the Daly City Partnership for providing valuable support services to the community; and an event hosted by the Burmese community at Gellert Park, thanking Vice Mayor Sylvester for informing her about the occasion. Manalo shared information about upcoming events in the city: National Night Out on August 5th at Serramonte, acknowledging Acting Chief Christensen; the grand opening of Seafood City grocery store on July 31st at St. Francis Square; an event showcasing the artwork of Doelger Seniors on August 12th at City Hall; the 2nd annual Hip Hop Day on August 16th at the War Memorial Community Center; Daly City Library Day with the San Francisco Giants, with proceeds benefiting local libraries; and free legal clinics hosted by API Legal Outreach and the City on the second and fourth Fridays of the month, encouraging community members to register online through the City's social media channels. Manalo congratulated the Kapwa Kultural Center (KKC) on their grand opening and on winning a beautiful community space, Kapwa Gardens, through their efforts; she acknowledged Supervisor Canepa for his support of KKC.

Councilmember DiGiovanni reported attending recent events: the Brain Exploration event for children, which focused on neuroscience and STEM at the South San Francisco Library; the Thank You Fair at the Bayshore Community Center, acknowledging Peninsula Family Services for their contributions, along with the Bayshore Library; and the memorial service for Queen Iesha Ena, attended along with the Council and City Manager Piccolotti. DiGiovanni discussed a partnership with Peninsula Family Services to build a new childcare center near City Hall and acknowledged Supervisor Speier for her support in securing funding for this project. DiGiovanni requested that the City explore funding options, possibly through grants, to help keep the Library open on Saturdays to provide a safe space for the community. DiGiovanni mentioned the potential for a free health clinic at the Top of the Hill area, supported by the SF Host Lions and Daly City Crocker Lodge.

Vice Mayor Sylvester reported attending recent events: the memorial service for John Iesha Ena, where Sylvester presented a proclamation in honor of Ena and acknowledged those present, including City Manager Piccolotti, City staff, and members of the Police Department; and a celebration with KQED to honor the Pasifika community, as a guest of Reina Meafua, and which featured performances of Tongan, Samoan, Hawaiian, and Tahitian dances. Sylvester highlighted several upcoming events, including the openings of Seafood City and Chow King in Daly City, National Night Out on August 5th, which will feature a new vendor, and a fundraiser event by Daly City PAL on September 5th, to be catered by Original Joe's Restaurant.

ADJOURNMENT:

Vice Mayor Sylvester adjourned the meeting at 9:07 P.M. in memory of Benito Jaime Del Rosario, Jr., John Iesha Ena, William James Simms, Anton Thomas Jensen, Bryan Eric Lujan, Pia Lopezbanos-Carrion, and Arsenio Celedio.
