COMMISSIONERS' REPORT

Daly City Chinese Youth Committee

Chair Montanes introduced the Daly City Chinese Youth Committee. The members introduced themselves and President Adam gave an overview of what their committee is about. They were founded in 2023 and are mainly focused on promoting Chinese cultural engagement among Daly City residents. They collaborate with local community organizations to support Asian American events through volunteering and outreach. Their most notable event is the annual Children's Day celebration. All high school students are welcome to join their organization. For more information visit Instagram @dccyc63 or email dccyc63@gmail.com.

Everyday People Club

Chair Montanes introduced co-founders of the Everyday People Club, brothers John and Mark Penacerrada who gave an overview of their organization. They are a grassroots organization that provides resources and opportunities for health and wellness for all ages and levels of fitness. They meet once a month and are focused on being in motion, keeping active as a community. For more information visit Instagram @everydaypeople.club
