DIRECTOR'S REPORT

Arts Programming for Teens:

Library Director Chela Anderson introduced the Youth Services team Sarah Spence and Rook. Rook shared what's new with teen programming. They offer a monthly hour and a half craft hang that's drop-in based with a different craft activity each month at the Serramonte branch. They do outreach to Daly City middle and high schools during lunch by bringing a small pop-up craft activity, promoting the monthly teen program and summer volunteering. They also work with the summer teen volunteers and the library card art contest. Their upcoming goals are to collaborate with Peninsula Books, increase frequency of teen art workshops and outreach to schools, build relationships with student clubs, expand the teen volunteer program and the teen art residency.

Revised 3D Printer Policy:

Library Director Chela Anderson shared the final draft of the revised 3D printer policy that included all the edits the Board proposed. Trustee Lex motioned for the revised 3D printer policy to be approved. President Tronco seconded the motion, the motion carried unanimously.

TRUSTEES' REPORT

DCPLA/Library Board Collaboration on Community-Driven Giving:

Trustee Lex shared that they've met in February and March. At the February meeting they developed project objectives that includes soliciting ideas from library patrons and DCPLA members on how DCPLA donated funds should be used to enhance and supplement a variety of things including library services, media collections, programs, equipment acquisitions and upgrades, facilities enhancements/furnishings. They plan to ask the public for ideas using digital and physical surveys using the $5,000 grant the DCPLA provided.

Advocacy with State Representatives:

Library Director Chela Anderson thanked President Tronco for writing letters on behalf of the Library Board to Assembly member Catherine Stefani and State Senator Scott Wiener regarding the CLSA funding cut. She thanked DCPLA for writing letters as well. She met with Assembly member Stefani who gave her advice on timing of when to bring up the funding cut again, since currently it's not the right time.
